Examinations.

S. Catharine's was extremely successful in 1914 as regards public examinations. In November five girls sat for the Junior Public Examination of the University of Queensland. All passed: with merit in several cases. The details are as follows:—

Iris Shield passed with merit in history, English literature and language, and French; also passed in geography, arithmetic and physiology.

Joan Elliott passed with merit in geography and French; also passed in history, English literature and language, and physiology.

Meta Brookes passed with merit in history; also passed in geography, English literature and language, and French.

Joan Presley Challinor passed in history, geography, French and physiology.

Bertha Logan passed in history, English literature and language, arithmetic and physiology.

All four candidates who were presented for the Examination of the Associated Board of the Royal Academy and Royal College of Music, passed, Isobel Ferguson gaining distinction.

Several of the girls in form V.B hope to sit for the Junior Public this year.
