News of Old Girls.

We hear that Edith Green is studying for Matriculation, and that Zoe has joined the International Correspondence School, and is also taking lessons at the Brisbane Technical College.

Christian Wade-Browne was married on March 25th at All Saints, to Mr. E. Holland Watts, of Evesham Station, Longreach.

Lilah Kemsley is living in Sydney.

Ophir Jenkins is teaching, and has to ride about five miles every day to her little tent school.

Olive Bonner, Rebecca Crome, Jean Ferrier, Joyce Olive, Hilda Michel Kathleen McNiell, Enid Portus, Phemie Scott and Doris Wilmot are all leading "home" lives.

Doris Watt has left school, but is still living in Sydney, taking lessons in various subjects, including music from the Russian Pianist, Pruntij.

Helen Hall has been on a round of visits, and has now returned home to "Silver Spur."

Rosemary Watkins is going as probationer to Warwick General Hospital

Mrs. G. Rodder (Katie Seymour), has a baby girl.

May Davies has gone to the West as governess to two little girls.

Bertha Logan has returned home for the present, but we understand that she intends to train as a nurse later on.

Florence Boyce and Eva Foster are attending a business college in Too-woomba.

Zoe Pike has been paying a visit to Mrs. Bonner, and we hear that riding is her latest accomplishment.

Winifred Stevens, Joan Challinor and Joan Elliott are all living at home and devoting their spare energy to dressmaking, music, etc. They have also made some acquaintance with the skating rink (floor!). Joan Elliott visits regularly at the childrens' hospital.

Dorothy Johnston, Violet and Jean Preston, Phyllis Quarterman, Biddy Kent are still at St. Margarets. Doris Culley is also attending St. Margarets for extra classes.
