

they owed this young girl and were extra kind and loving to her.

When she went back to school with Helen, her new friends had invited her to come to their home as often as she wished. She was a happy girl then!

—JOYCE DUNSHEA.

O.G.A. NOTES.

The membership of the O.G.A. has now increased to forty-six. During the year we welcomed M. Tuck, M. Haig, G. Harris, W. Flewell-Smith, M. Lovett, D. Smith, and Mrs. Nagel as members.

We held a very successful bridge evening in September and raised over £9. Next year we hope to present the school with a wireless set. An Old Girls' tennis afternoon was held in April, and in September we played a match against the Present Girls; this was won by the Old Girls.

ELLA WILL is at present teaching at S. Catharine's.

RHONDA BRYCE was married at Easter to Mr. Nagel, and is living in Stanthorpe.

MARY HENDERSON is also married and resides at Longreach.

Mrs. LITTLE is now living in Texas and we miss her very much at our meetings.

RUTH BONNER has opened a private hospital in Stanthorpe and is being helped by OLIVE BONNER.

DOROTHY LAWSON has been spending the last twelve months with her brother in Innisfail, and seems to be having a gay time.

EMMA GRAHAM WILSON has temporarily joined the Staff. She is leaving Stanthorpe at the end of the year to live in Victoria.

LURLIE ROSS, we hear, has become quite a champion at golf.

ALICE SHAMBROOK always meets our travellers at Wallangarra.

ALICE DENTON has completed her training at St. Mar-