

MABEL SHAMBROOK does office work in Wallangarra, and plays good golf in her leisure hours.

IRENE JARRETT is visiting us at present.

MEG LOVETT lives at home. She excels on the hockey field.

KATHLEEN PORTER has had several short stories and articles accepted by Adelaide and English papers.

LURLIE ROSS, PETRONEL KING, EDNA HAISER, JEAN COOPER, DOROTHY COLLINS, MARY LUKE, MAIDA DRAKE, BETTY BATEMAN, and AUDREY DEUTSCHER all live at home.

KATHLEEN and DOROTHY PATRICK both have positions in Stanthorpe.

MARY NORTON works on the staff of the Brisbane "Telegraph."

ELLA WILL and ELAINE GERRY are teaching at S. Catharine's.

MARRIAGES.

10th November, at Dalby, Marian Bassingthwaite to Mr. W. Davidson.

BIRTHS.

To Mr. and Mrs. F. Strauss (nee C. Pierpoint)—a daughter.

To Mr. and Mrs. A. Heslin (nee M. Henderson)—a son.

To Mr. and Mrs. A. Little (nee Wilmot)—a daughter.

—DORIS GATAKER, Hon. Sec. O.G.A.

ATHLETICS.

S. Catharine's really has two sports days. Ascension Day and the annual sports day.

On Ascension morning we gazed very sadly at the clouds. "Why should the sky weep on such a day?" was the cry. Dodging between the showers we were fortunate enough to complete the programme. Kingsley won with 89 points, Kipling second with 54, and Keats third with 48.

The weather on the annual sports day was a contrast to this. What with an exceptionally bright afternoon, war cries and stirring enthusiasm, S. Catharine's had a very successful afternoon on the 17th October—SPORTS DAY.

How many look forward to that great day?—how much preparation beforehand?

The three Houses worked and trained for many weeks—ball games, hurdles, running.

After all those strenuous preparations, Sports Day did arrive. Bottles had to be covered for the chariot race, potatoes