

When the day is fair,
She does her pretty hair,
And puts on her dresses,
To match her fair tresses.

OUR GROUP TEA.

Mrs. Slade and Mrs. Crothers,
Mrs. Barnes and all our mothers,
Had a party here at School,
On the verandahs wide and cool.

There were speeches and loud cheers,
Faces smiling, free from tears,
In the school rooms there was tea,
While guests chattered merrily.

Three groups played at basket ball,
We all jumped at the whistle's call,
Barnes, too good for all the others,
Easily won from Slade and Crothers.
