

The Rev. M. Griffith, the organiser for Sunday Schools, was present at prayers on March 25th, when he spoke to the girls. The same day Mrs. Stevenson visited the School.

A Group Tea was held on April 24th. The heads of the Groups, Mrs. J. H. S. Barnes, Mrs. Crothers, and Mrs. O. Slade, were present. There were also a number of other visitors.

Two Inter-School Tennis Matches have been played, and in both of these we have been successful. Three tennis teams are playing in Women's Association matches.

Competition in Net-Ball is much keener. In Base Ball for this year, the results are: House girls 359, Day girls 346.

Girls sat for the music examinations at the end of 1928. E. Murray, with 66 per cent., and I. Keenan with 61 per cent., passed the preparatory practical. In Theory Junior, D. Burey gained 88 per cent., I. Keenan 77, M. Murray 76, A. McLean 61. Preparatory, E. Murray 100, E. Burey 96.

In the Junior University Examinations for 1928, F. Stirling gained A in French, and Drawing, B in English, Geography, Latin, Arithmetic, Geology, Music, C in Algebra, Geometry. M. Thompson gained B in French, English, C in Geography and Physiology. B. Medhurst gained B in English, French, History, C in Latin.

Honours for work for 1928 were awarded to N. Elphinstone, B. Rowland, M. Deacon, F. Stirling, B. Medhurst.

During the year, the Guides and Brownies have made rapid progress. There are more second class Guides. The girls are becoming more interested in the work for badges. We congratulate Miss Smith on her success in gaining her Captain's Warrant. Mrs. Moncrieffe-Scott kindly presented the Company Flag, which was dedicated by Mr. Neal, last year. B. Rowland has been made First Lieutenant, and Jessie Walton Second Lieutenant. As a Company the Guides attended service at St. Mark's Church, on Anzac Day.

On Ascension Day, after a service in the Church, our Annual School picnic was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. Many visitors were present. The Guides and Brownies used this opportunity for outdoor work.

The School Dance, which was held in the School Hall on Saturday, May 18th, was enjoyed by the Senior Girls and the boys from Slade School.

Mrs. Blair, wife of the Chief Justice, was entertained at afternoon tea on May 22nd, and was present afterwards, at an impromptu concert.

Mr. Chief Justice Blair unveiled the Old Girls' Honour Board on Monday, May 27th. The Senior Girls appreciated the opportunity of meeting Mr. and Mrs. Blair, at supper afterwards.

The next term begins July 16th, 1929.